

The Wakaya Club & Spa Receives Top Five Ranking in Andrew Harper's Hideaway Report Reader's Choice Awards

October 9, 2008—Wakaya, Fiji. The Wakaya Club & Spa has been voted #5 on the list of Top 20 International Hideaways in the prestigious Andrew Harper's Hideaway Report 2008 Reader's Survey. The International Hideaways category includes favorite hideaway resorts in the world with 50 or fewer rooms.

The Wakaya Club & Spa is the only Fijian resort to make the list this year, and it has been a consistent favorite of Andrew Harper's as well as his loyal readers, having been named to this list eight times. David Gilmour, Owner and Founder of The Wakaya Club & Spa, commented "We are honored once again to be included in the list of the top international resorts by Andrew Harper's readers. We created The Wakaya Club & Spa to be "A World Apart"—a blissful retreat from everyday life—and we are thrilled to be able to fulfill that vision for our guests."

Andrew Harper's Hideaway Report is highly regarded by discerning travelers as "a connoisseur's worldwide guide to peaceful and unspoiled places." Their 27th annual survey of sophisticated travelers rates the world's best hotels, resorts & hideaways in a reader's poll that "serves as a steady and consistent gauge in accurately pinpointing the current hotel and destination preferences of upscale travelers."

The Wakaya Club & Spa is a unique eco-friendly resort on a 2,200 acre private island that offers guests an experience of renewal and discovery through a luxurious vacation. Located in one of the last unspoiled corners of the world, the resort sets a new standard for tourism as the foundation for ecologically sound economic development that contributes to the quality of life for the people of Fiji.
